

COAL

Exports slide at Richards Bay

Shipments from Richards Bay coal terminal slid 22 percent last month from a year earlier after railway maintenance work and a decline in coal prices. The terminal shipped 3.57 million tons, compared with 4.57 million tons in May last year and 4.81 million tons in April this year, according to Bloomberg calculations based on the terminal operator's statistics – Bloomberg